No one likes to move. But sometimes you have no choice. Your landlord may want to raise the rent. You may have gotten a new job in a different city. Or perhaps you simply can't stand the noise from your new neighbors. Don't lose heart because here are some tips on finding your next "home sweet home".

The task of looking for a new home may seem a bit overwhelming at first, but it doesn't have to be. Before you start looking, ask yourself these questions. Is public transportation convenient? How much are you willing to spend on rent?

Would you like to share with roommates? What conveniences do you definitely need and what things can you live without? For example, if there's a Laundromat nearby, you might be able to get by without a washing machine. If summers are hot, however, an air conditioner might be a must!

Arrange to see the apartments that match you needs. Make notes on the pros and cons of each place, as this will make it easier to compare and decide later on. It is not always easy to find the right place, but don't get discouraged. You should be able to find the right place.

36. What does the phrase "lose heart" mean?

(A) become discouraged (B) be happy

(C) be delighted (D) become courageous
